Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Line 3, "the first gain stage further coupled to receive input from the input chopper" should be rewritten as, -- an input of the first gain stage coupled to receive an output of the input chopper --.

Lines 3-4, "an output chopper coupled to receive input from the second gain stage" should be rewritten as, -- an input of an output chopper coupled to receive an output of the second gain stage --.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (Fig. 1), hereafter referred to as PRIOR ART in view of Chandler et al. (6,577,185).

Regarding claims 1, 3, PRIOR ART (Fig. 1) disclose claimed invention except compensation capacitor claimed.

Chandler et al. (Fig. 7) disclose a multistage switching amplifier comprising a pair of capacitors ( $C_M$ ), which can be read as first and second capacitors as in claim 3, coupled in a feedback path.

PRIOR ART and Chandler et al. are analogous art because they are from the same field of endeavor, namely switching amplifier. Accordingly, it would have been obvious in view of the reference, taken as a whole, to have modified the circuit of PRIOR ART to have included at least a capacitor, as taught by Chandler et al. Such a modification would have imparted the advantageous benefit of provided frequency compensation, column 8, lines 1-5, as taught by Chandler et al., to PRIOR ART reference, thereby suggesting the obviousness of such a modification.

Regarding claim 2, wherein the stages are differential gain stages, and wherein the feedback chopper is disposed between the output chopper and the at least one compensation capacitor (C<sub>M</sub>).

Regarding claims 4, 5, wherein subject matters claimed in seen in PRIOR ART.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6-11 are allowed.

Claims 6-11 call for, among others, a third chopper having the connection and function as claimed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The additional references (Brooks et al. (5,847,600); Dedic et al. (4,994,805)) show further analogous prior art circuitry.
